

What happens if the Provider does not submit requested records?

Failure to submit the requested medical information will result in a claim adjustment against the provider's claim. The monies will be recovered by Florida's Office of Medicaid Program Integrity (MPI).